Le Salon du livre du Grand Sudbury returns from May 8 to 10, 2026

Histoires de nos Racines

The Salon du livre du Grand Sudbury (SLGS) invites the public to Place des Arts du Grand Sudbury from May 8 to 10, 2026, for a new edition of its book fair and literary festival under the theme “Histoires de nos racines/Stories of Our Roots”. Over three days, this Northern Ontario flagship literary event will celebrate the richness and vitality of Francophone literature through a dynamic, accessible program deeply rooted in the community.

Through this theme, SLGS aims to highlight the stories that shape our identities, nourish our collective memory and build connections between generations. Books become spaces for new encounters, dialogue and discovery.

A Vibrant Celebration of Reading in French

Each year, the event brings together Francophones and Francophiles from all backgrounds around the joy of reading and storytelling. The 2026 edition will feature a diverse and contemporary program addressing a range of topics, including:

- identity and language,
- linguistic insecurity,
- healthy aging,
- politics,
- comics and graphic novels for youth and adults, and
- cultural diversity.

True to its mission of cultural outreach, SLGS showcases voices from both near and far while affirming its leadership in promoting reading and Francophone culture in Northern Ontario.

A Program for All Audiences

The Salon du livre du Grand Sudbury offers:

- thousands of French-language books to discover and purchase,
- book signings and encounters with forty plus guest authors,
- conferences, panel discussions, literary talks, and literary lunches,
- book launches and performances,
- youth and family activities,
- a school tour bringing authors into classrooms across the region, and
- a book fair featuring Francophone publishers and booksellers.

The full program and list of guest authors and artists will be announced in the coming weeks.

A Gathering Place at the Heart of the Community

Presented at Place des Arts du Grand Sudbury in downtown Sudbury, the Book Fair and Literary Festival take place in a vibrant multidisciplinary cultural hub to which the organization has actively contributed for over twenty years.

The Salon du livre du Grand Sudbury continues to play a key role in promoting Francophone literature and advancing literacy in Northern Ontario.

The public is invited to subscribe to the newsletter and follow the Salon du livre on Facebook and Instagram to stay informed about upcoming announcements for the 2026 edition.

About Salon du livre du Grand Sudbury

The Salon du livre du Grand Sudbury is a charitable organization and a major literary event in French Ontario.

Its mission is to promote education and reading in the French language by offering conferences, workshops and cultural mediation activities connecting the public with authors of literary works.

An innovative, dynamic and engaged organization, SLGS presents an annual and diverse program that includes a book fair, school visits and an author tour in classrooms. It promotes inclusion, collaboration, empathy, a passion for reading and innovation in all its initiatives.
